Abu Sa'id al-Khudri reported: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "The Mahdi will be from my lineage, with a curved nose. He will fill the earth with justice and equity, just as it had been filled with tyranny and oppression. He will rule for seven years."

COUNTER-OPEN-LETTER TO MEMRI...THERE IS NO MATCH FOR YOU WITH THE MUJAHIDIN

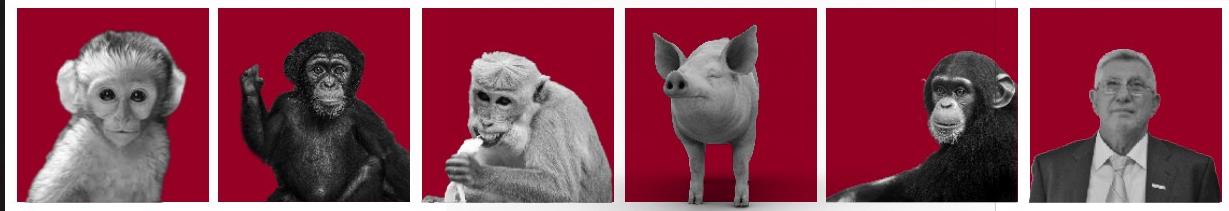

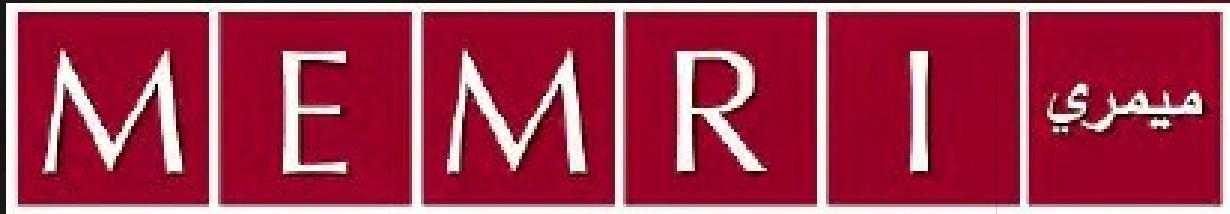

Despite the great prophetic tradition hailing from the Jewish people by virtue of Allah Ta'ala, the Jews keep wandering on the vast lands of perdition, eager to make the whole humanity plunge along with them in the pursuit of falsehood and of the total subversion of the "Fitrah" (the very natural disposition upon which the Creator created His creatures with immense wisdom), generating "Fitnah" within the Ummah to mislead Muslims for their malevolent purposes. Lost in misguidance, they really resemble the "apes and pigs" [al-Mā'idah, 5:60] described in the Noble Quran: how else can they appear in the eyes of the Almighty given their willful and immovable support for Shaytan's endeavor to rebel against His lordships over the worlds? Against this background, no true believer can be surprised by the misery and dishonesty shown by MEMRI's Mr. President Col. Yigal Carmon in the open letter he addressed to the undersigned, as a response to our previous exposition of MEMRI's utter failure in tarnishing the image and mission of the Islamic Khilafah through its Shaytanic online platforms. For facts and evidence, do not miss the article "MEMRI Plans, but Allah is the Best of Planners", featured in the no. 25 of Voice of Khurasan, if you have not read it yet.

Needless to say, Col. Carmon did not dare to publish the entire text of the article on MEMRI's website, otherwise he would have shed light on the reasons why an increasing number of his readers, both Muslims and unbelievers, Jews included, are becoming passionate supporters of the mujahidin. The intention to misguide them about the Jihad fi Sabilillah, depicting the gestures of the Islamic soldiers in a negative view, is so blatant that MEMRI has lost any credibility, allowing the truth (Haqq) to come to the surface and be seen free of charge by millions of people, and not only, as Col.

Carmon argued, by the subscribers from the Kuffar "intelligence and law enforcement agencies", all affiliated in a way or another to the imperialistic Zionist statelet of Israel. Actually, the Islamic Khilafah extends "the rope of Allah" [Āal-i-'Imrān, 3:130] to them as well, since He "guides whom He wills to the Straight Path (Sirat al-Mustaqim)" [an-Nūr, 24:46]. So, do not hesitate to cling to it for your own sake!

It seems, however, that also for the time being Col. Carmon and his bedfellows at MEMRI are destined to enjoy the condition of “apes and pigs” [al-Mā’idah, 5:60], to be sure always unintentionally at the service of the Jihad fi Sabilillah. Indeed, “MEMRI Plans, but Allah is the Best of Planners”. The letter he scrawled enabled Voice of Khurasan to further consolidate its standing and earn new hearts and minds among the same public that MEMRI aims to divert by manipulating reality against the Islamic Khilafah. If Col. Carmon had imagined that plenty of users enlightened by the Tawheed would have reached out to Voice of Khurasan through its social media channels to share their disdain at MEMRI’s bogus propaganda, most likely he would have given up. Or he would have published the letter anyway, driven by its Shaytan-inflated ego (Nafs), incapable of catching the “signs” inviting him to repent. And so he did, instead of submitting to Allah Ta’ala, despite His early warning:

“Those who are too arrogant to worship Me will enter Hell in contempt” [al-Ghāfir, 40:60].

The result has been another boost to the mujahidin and another utter failure for Col. Carmon, which call for his removal as MEMRI’s Mr. President by the usual puppet masters of the Mossad. He managed to save his post so far, but what will happen when they read this counter-open-letter? Let’s see if this time they will have the courage to publish the full text. No more quote mining to engineer the communication please, allow the users to read the truth and judge themselves, as they are already doing anyway. Or are you afraid of the Haqq? Why don’t you come to terms with the fact that all your campaigns of libel, slander, and defamation against the Islamic Khilafah have the opposite effect and cannot hide to the world your crimes and misdeeds?

Military occupation, bombings and killings

(even of children, teenagers, and youth), imprisonments and tortures, beatings, deportations and displacements, land and house grabbing, and so on and so forth: there is no mention on MEMRI's "Terrorism Threat Monitor" of all the oppression the imperialistic Zionist statelet of Israel has demonstrated to be capable of, while the brothers and sisters in the Palestine who try to defend themselves are labeled as "terrorists". No mention either of the infamous "yeshivas," the forge of the Jewish extremism that are used to "educate" tens of thousands of terrorist settlers to become killers, hooligans, and thieves, as well as army and intelligence officers, ministers and politicians, like the scum currently running the Zionist government and establishment. Are you one of them, Col. Carmon? Who are the actual murderers, the violent and radical ones, those who lack humanity? Urinating near the Masjid al-Aqsa or where Palestinian young martyrs were killed is what "apes and pigs" do, but better to ignore it on MEMRI's online platforms, is it true?

We mujahidin, Alhamdulillah, are blessed to apply the Islamic rules of Qital in fighting for the Jihad fi Sabilillah, and Shari'ah for the ruling of a rightly guided Islamic community, including the role of women. The allegation of misogyny, based on a fake video most probably filmed in a Jew-owned Hollywood studio, is totally misplaced. Mistakes and faults occurred, and we do not look for excuses: may Allah Ta'ala punish the transgressors as they deserve, alleviate the suffering of the victims and reward them, lending us His support to address our human imperfections along the Sirat al-Mustaqim.

However, the path of modesty, children education, and family care for women is what the Almighty designed for the well-being of both women and men on an individual and social level, as opposed to the Barbie or LGBT-etc. models that have long been promoted... guess by who, Col. Carmon? Unsurprisingly, MEMRI's team does not spare efforts in spearheading the feminist and LGBT-etc. warfare agenda, passing off the Islamic discourse against such destructive and wicked models as misogynistic and disrespectful of women rights. But what is really misogynistic and disrespectful here in regard to women is to induce them through ideological brain-washing to masculization and conversion to non-heterosexuality. A dynamic thought out for men too from another angle. Can we agree at least on this point, Col. Carmon?

COUNTER-OPEN-LETTER TO MEMRI...THERE IS NO MATCH FOR YOU WITH THE MUJAHIDIN

If all Muslims followed the Deen as the Islamic Khilafah urges them to do, starting from our Palestinian brothers and sisters, there would be no match for the imperialistic Zionist statelet of Israel. Now, you would already be adoring Allah Ta'ala as a Muwahid, singing hymns to Him, the Anasheed you love so much. Imagine celebrating all together at the Masjid al-Aqsa His last Messenger, our beloved Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ), and the other Prophets He encountered in the Isra and Miraj, who preceded Prophet Muhammad ﷺ in proclaiming Islam: Adam, Yahya, Isa, Yusuf, Harun, Musa, Ibrahim. Instead, today you are receiving their curses for what you and the Jewish global Tawagheet are doing to yourselves and the whole humanity.

WHY DO YOU STAY

B E H I N D ?

ISSUE 28 SAFAR 1445 H.

WHY DO YOU STAY BEHIND?

WHY DO YOU STAY BEHIND?

Has the Islamic Shari'ah become prevalent all over the world, so you do not do jihad in the cause of Allah?

Have the believing brothers and sisters been freed from the prisons of the infidels, apostates, and polytheists, so you have chosen a life devoid of zeal for the religion?

Have you forgotten the bodies of the children who were torn to pieces by indiscriminate bombing?

O, YOUNG MUSLIMS WHO HAVE LEFT JIHAD!

O those who pledged allegiance to the Khalifah of the Muslims for obeying him at times of ease and difficulty!

O those who said in their oath which they did with the Khalifah that they would testify the words of Haq and support the Haq as long as they are alive, and they would not care the blame of any critic!

Why have you abandoned jihad in the cause of Allah?

What has made you leaving this glorious path and departing from the ranks of the mujahideen?

Does not destroying the dreams of many widows and orphans bother you a bit?

After witnessing the enormous nusrah of Allah the Almighty, how your hopes and wishes are revolving around the affairs of this trivial world?

What has made you leaving the jama'ah of the mujahidin in difficult times after enjoying the sweet fruit of sacrifice of the martyrs during the good days?

Has jihad ended, so you are sitting at home, laying down your weapons?

Has the Islamic Shari'ah become prevalent all over the world, so you do not do jihad in the cause of Allah?

Have the infidels, apostates, and polytheists end up in the whole world that you have turned away from fighting them?

Have the believing brothers and sisters been freed from the prisons of the infidels, apostates, and polytheists, so you have chosen a life devoid of zeal for the religion?

O youth! Have you forgotten the bodies of the brothers and sisters, and children of the believers who were torn to pieces by indiscriminate bombing?

How could you throw away the hopes and dreams of the captive-believing brothers and sisters who spend days and nights in the prisons of infidels, apostates, and polytheists, waiting for your arrival for breaking their prison walls? If none of these happened, then what has made you abandoning jihad in the way of Allah? Remember, if you do not do jihad in the way of Allah, and do not strive in His way, and choose to live in comfort at home with your family, then beware that you are throwing yourself, by your own hands, into the pit of destruction, as Allah the Almighty says: {Spend in the cause of Allah and do not let your own hands throw you into destruction 'by withholding'. And do good, for Allah certainly loves the good-doers} [Al-Baqarah: 195]

The commentators of Quran interpreted many meaning of destruction of which we shall mention a couple of meaning here: Firstly, the meaning is as mentioned in at-Tirmidhi, i.e. abandoning jihad means throwing oneself into the pit of destruction. Secondly, destruction means staying at home and accumulating wealth. As it is mentioned in the hadith of Abu Ayyub Ansari, may Allah be pleased with him, that in his time, a man from among the muhajirin attacked the infidels alone and kept penetrating their ranks until he reached the other end. So people said: he threw himself to destruction, so Abu Ayyub Ansari, may Allah be pleased with him, said: "O people! We know this verse very well and it was revealed about us. We became Companions of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and attended battles with him, so when Islam spread, we, the ansars, gathered and said that Allah has made Islam prevail, and at the beginning, we used to leave our family and wealth for the support of Islam, so now we will go back and sit with our family and protect our wealth. So, Allah Almighty revealed this verse about us. Therefore, what is meant by danger (destruction) is staying with one's family and property, and abandoning jihad in the way of Allah." [Abu Dawud, at-Tirmidhi and Ibn Kathir] So, o young people who turned your back to jihad, we say that at the time of the Companions, may Allah be pleased with them, Islam prevailed, and the ansar Companions, may Allah be pleased with them, decided to go back to their families and live with them and protect their wealth, abandoning jihad, then Allah revealed the verse about them. So, for what reason you are not participating in jihad in the way of Allah? Although Islam has not dominated the whole world, rather the infidels and their slaves are the dominant ones! And Muslim brothers and sisters spend the nights and days of captivity in the prisons of the infidels! The atrocities of the infidels are still going on the Muslims everywhere! Yet, why did you turn away from the holy duty of jihad in the cause of Allah? By the Lord of the worlds! If you do not wage jihad in the way of Allah, and if you turn away from this, Allah will punish you severely, as Allah Almighty says: {If you do not march forth, He will afflict you with a painful torment and replace you with other people. You will not harm Him in the least. And Allah is over all all things competent} [At-Tawbah: 39] In this verse, a particularly harsh promise has been given to the people who stayed back from the conquest of Tabuk, and in general to all the people who abandon jihad in the way of Allah, as Allah the Exalted says:

{O you who have believed, whoever among you abandons their faith, Allah will replace them with others who love Him and are loved by Him. They will be humble towards the believers but harsh against the disbelievers; they strive in the cause of Allah and do not fear the blame of a critic. This is the favor of Allah; He bestows it upon whom He wills. And Allah is all-Encompassing and Knowing} [Al-Maidah: 54] And it is mentioned in hadith: Narrated by Ibn 'Umar رضي الله عنهما: I heard Allah's Messenger ﷺ saying, "If you sell anything on credit to anyone on the condition that you will buy it back for a lower price (al-'Einah), take hold of the tails of cattle, become pleased with agriculture, and give up jihad, Allah will make disgrace prevail over you and will not remove it from you until you return to your religion (jihad)." [Abu Da'wood] In the same way, it is a disgrace that today we are seeing with our own eyes that some people have surrendered to the kufri and shirki systems of the infidels out of fear and for protecting themselves, and for improving their lives. But the very guardians of those kufri and shirk systems have started killing them in one place and sometimes in the other, while they cannot even raise a single question. So we say to you who have left jihad, if you want success in this world and the Hereafter, then for the pleasure of Allah, return to the vast ground of jihad in the cause of Allah and raise the slogan of al-Jihad against the infidels, polytheists, and apostates, joining the ranks of the mujahidin from amongst the believers, with the help of Allah.

O Bondwoman of Allah!

And look how the Muslims boycotted Ka'b ﷺ in response to the command of their Prophet ﷺ and out of their allegiance to him! And did Ka'b ﷺ do what is done by those who remain behind today? Never! For with respect to those who remain behind today, it isn't enough for them to sit back and leave off supporting the truth. Rather, if jihad and the mujahidin were to be mentioned in the presence of some of them, they would lash them with sharp tongues!

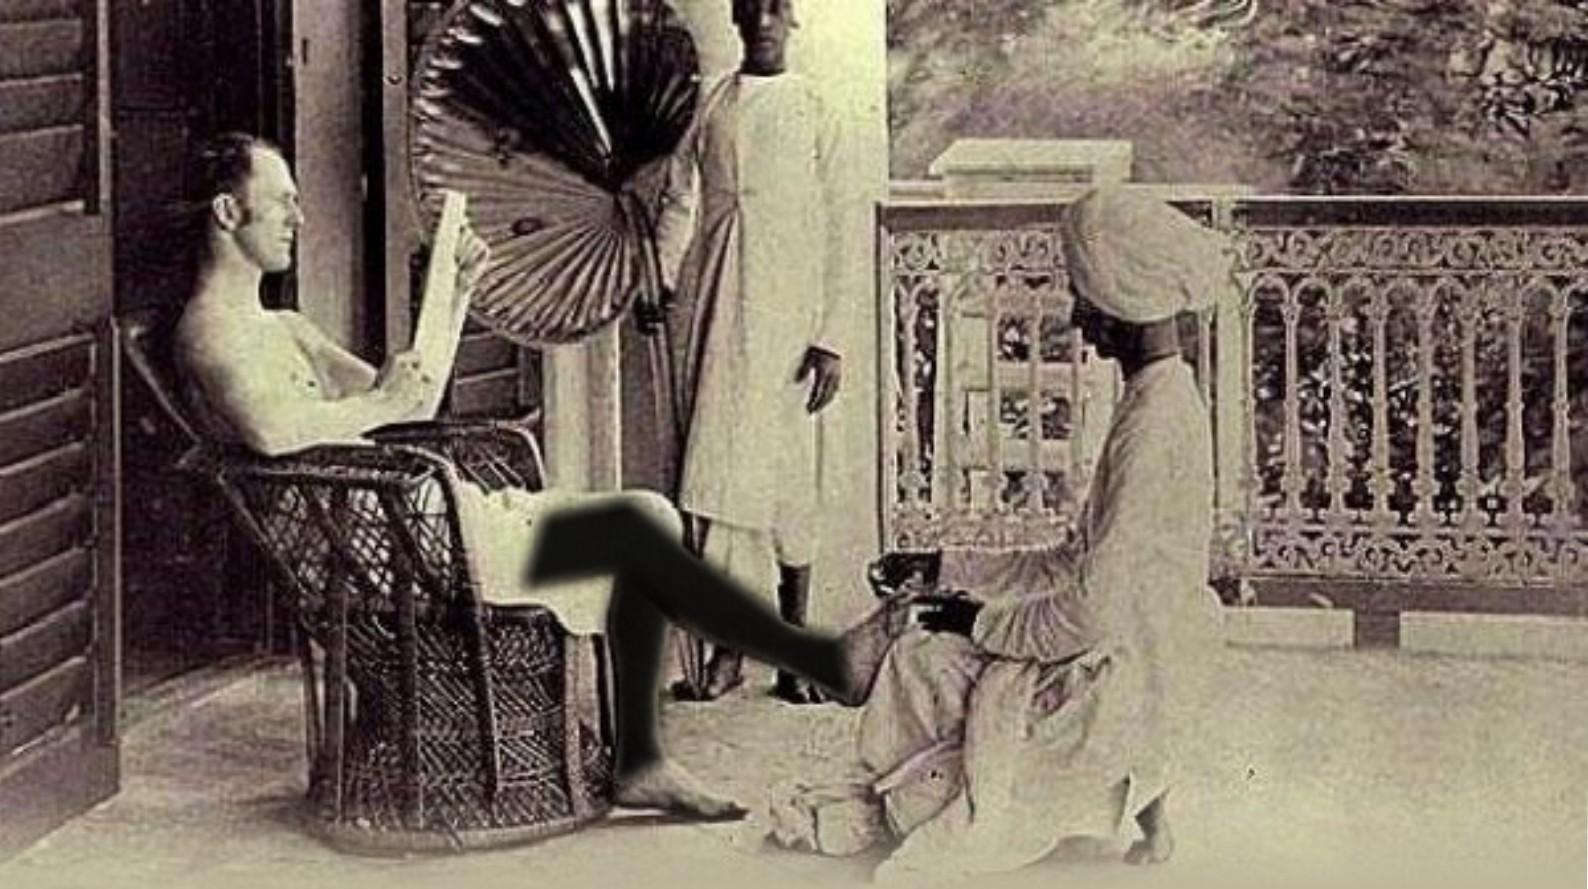

BRING BACK THE

AGE OF CRASHING IDOLS

Indian subcontinent was ruled by Muslims for several centuries which marked the most disgraceful chapter for the Hindu mushrikeen. They tried for centuries to get rid of Muslim rule, but these cowardly beings couldn't manage to get independence from blessing of being ruled by Muslims who resorted to justice. Later on, they were blessed by the British invaders, when they finally got rid of Muslim rule. And the British Empire only accomplished in overthrowing Muslims through treachery in which they were supported by many traitors. The cow worshippers preferred more humiliation at the hand of unjust British tyrants over being ruled by Muslim rulers who dealt with them with justice. Nevertheless, the humiliation is the ultimate fate of the polytheists.

As there goes a saying, "History repeats itself," for looking forward to the glorious future of the Muslims in Hind, let us become nostalgic about the glorious past for a while. Remember how the hero of the Muslims, Muhammad bin Qasim, spread the light of Tawheed in Hind defeating tyrant Raja Dahir. And this incident marked the beginning of crashing of idols and uprooting of shirk and kufr in this subcontinent. This is how this piece of land submerged in complete ignorance was blessed by the light of Tawheed (monotheism). Real justice, about which there was no mentioning even in the fairy tale stories of the idol worshipping masses, was established in this territory. Then remember the Ghaznawi Sultanate which crashed the last hope of the evil leaders of polytheistic masses of converting this part of the world again into a stronghold of idol worshiping that time. Remember what happened to Somnath temple which was the most sacred place among the Hindus who thought that Muslims can't crash the idol of Somnath. But people of Tawheed tore it apart and dragged it, and trampled it in the streets of Ghazni. Remember how Sultan Shahabuddin Ghori laid foundation of Delhi Sultanate. Remember how Mamluk, Khalji, Tughlaq, and Lodhi dynasty ruled Indian continent for centuries. Later on the western invaders succeeded in this land due to treachery of some imposters in the ranks of the Muslims.

Now the situation have been changed in India. It is a country to the largest Muslim population in the world whose large number couldn't guarantee security and honor for them, for security and honor lie only in turning back to the religion of Allah, as the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "When you partake in usury, hold on to the tails of cattle, become satisfied with cultivation and abandon jihād, Allah will send upon you humiliation and He will not remove it until you return back to your religion."

Now the situation have been changed in India. It is a country to the largest Muslim population in the world whose large number couldn't guarantee security and honor for them, for security and honor lie only in turning back to the religion of Allah, as the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "Accordingly, the Hindu polytheistic snakes are now gaining courage and raising their heads in India and all over the world against Islam and Muslims, after they had regained this land through their slavery to the British infidels. And now they are dealing with Muslims with the language of oppression in this land. Day by day, they are getting bold enough to devise new plans of persecuting innocent Muslims, while they do not know that real courage never lies in oppressing innocent masses, rather real courage lies in making sacrifices for establishing justice upon the earth and aiding the weaker ones. And no system in this world can establish such level of justice other than Islam. Within the series of demolishing masjids like Babri masjid in India and repeated blasphemy against the honorable position of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ, the cow worshipping Hindus are focusing on another masjid namer Gnanabapi Masjid in d honor lie only in turning back to the religion of Allah, as the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: "When you partake in usury, hold on to the tails of cattle, become satisfied with cultivation and abandon jihād, Allah will send upon you humiliation and He will not remove it until you return back to your religion."

Accordingly, the Hindu polytheistic snakes are now gaining courage and raising their heads in India and all over the world against Islam and Muslims, after they had regained this land through their slavery to the British infidels. And now they are dealing with Muslims with the language of oppression in this land. Day by day, they are getting bold enough to devise new plans of persecuting innocent Muslims, while they do not know that real courage never lies in oppressing innocent masses, rather real courage lies in making sacrifices for establishing justice upon the earth and aiding the weaker ones. And no system in this world can establish such level of justice other than Islam. Within the series of demolishing masjids like Babri masjid in India and repeated blasphemy against the honorable position of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ, the cow worshipping Hindus are focusing on another masjid namer Gnanabapi Masjid in Kashi, and they have been paving the way for destroying it under the pretext that there was a temple in its place originally. And this is not the first time they are resorting to such lies for proving that a masjid should be replaced by a temple which was originally in its place. They committed similar crimes many times before.

Indian archeology department began their 'survey' of the Gnanabapi masjid premises in Kashi recently. It is one of the most controversial religious structures in the country, which Indian Hindus claim were once temples. The controversy surrounding this mosque and its nearby Kashi Vishwanath temple is also very old. However, the question was raised by the mosque authorities, what is the need of the archeology department to carry out the survey "so hastily"?

Just as Ayodhya's Babri masjid was demolished three decades ago to pave the way for the construction of the Ram Mandir, many concerns have been raised that a similar pattern is being made around Kashi's Gnanabapi masjid.

Earlier, Gnanabapi masjid made headlines in 2021, when a group of Hindu women approached the court seeking permission to worship Hindu deities inside the mosque. A lower court in Varanasi then ordered a 'video survey' inside the mosque complex - and the survey purported that a structure in a part of the mosque that many Hindus claim is a 'Shivalinga'. However, the management committee of Gnanabapi masjid has been saying since then that the structure is actually nothing but a fountain inside their 'wazukhana' (place of abultion). Realizing the sensitivity of the matter, the Supreme Court of the Hindu Tawagheet ordered the closure of the Wazukhana inside the mosque.

In May of the same year, the Allahabad High Court rejected the mosque authorities' plea to reject the original plea of the Hindu women seeking permission to worship. After that, the archeology department was no longer barred from carrying out a survey of the mosque as per a Varanasi lower court ruling – but the wazukhana was kept out of the purview of the survey.

After the lower court of Varanasi gave the new order, the team of the archeology department appeared at the mosque. The worshipers gathered in front of Gnanabapi mosque to offer prayers. However, the mosque authorities had already informed that they would not cooperate in this. Lawyers complained in the Taghuti Supreme Court that the archeology department had started digging in the mosque in the name of survey. But rejecting that claim, the Solicitor General of Hindu court said that the archeology department is not doing anything except 'surveying'.

Muslims in India raised concern over the court's verdict in Varanasi and controversial role of the archeology department. Many observers fear that the verdict will reignite another temple-mosque dispute in India after Ayodhya. And such an act of converting a place of worship of a religion to that of another religion even goes against the Taghuti constitution of India, because idol worshipers never abide by their own laws while dealing with Muslims, although they hypocritically claim that law is equal. Apparently, the Hindutva thugs in India are trying to make a political issue about the Gnanabapi masjid before next year's elections.

"Archaeology department is not neutral"

a popular Taghuti leader Asaduddin YC also questioned the validity of the lower court verdict. He openly stated, "The Archeology Department of India has been the bearer of many Hindutva lies before - no impartiality can be expected from them." And similar drama of archeological department of India has been seen many times in India for preparing ground for demolishing a masjid.

During the Ram Mandir movement in India, a very popular slogan of Hindutva groups was, "This is only a shake, Kashi-Mathura remain!" In which there was a veiled threat, after demolishing the mosque in Ayodhya and building

Ram Mandir, they will launch a campaign to occupy mosques in Kashi-Mathura as well.

However, there is way no out from this predicament and humiliation for the Muslims in India unless they respond to the call of jihad against these cowardly cow-worshipping Hindu filths. And there is no jihad without obedience to Allah and His Messenger ﷺ. And obedience is only ensured by pledging allegiance to Khalifah of the Muslims and fighting the enemies of Allah. Only such an obedience will ensure the nusrah of Allah and the elimination of the immense humiliation that has been inflicted upon the Muslims in India. And only through such obedience, they can bring back the glorious age of Islam again in this territory. And there is nothing to be deceived by the crocodile tears of the murtadd regimes, like Pakistan, who have been deceiving them for decades for achieving their own interests. Nevertheless, take glad tiding of

of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, said: The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: “There are two groups of my ummah whom Allah will protect from the Fire: a group who will conquer India, and a group who will be with ‘Eesaa ibn Maryam (peace be upon him).”

O the descendants of Muhammad bin Qasim and Mahmud the idol-crasher. Why don't you seek honor by following in the footsteps of your righteous predecessors? What is point of your tireless quest for floating in the ocean of humiliation? You are supposed to open the books that record your glorious past and realize who you are. There is no point of finding pleasure in appeasing the filthy polytheists who have disobeyed their Lord and associated almost every species in their land with Him. Know thyself, you are the Muslims who never bow down their heads before anyone but Allah the Lord of worlds. So stand up and remove the shackle of slavery, and fight for your honor in the way of Allah, for there is no honor for you unless the Shari'ah of your Lord is established in the earth.

Ibadaah of Bloodshed:

the ULTIMATE

TREATMENT OF HINDUS IN THIS WORLDLY LIFE

Your Home Minister for Haryana the filthy 'Anil Vij' galvanised his lapdogs (Bajrang Dal and VHP) to take out a procession armed with sword, knives, and guns and comprising over 300 vehicles through muslim majority areas in "Nuh" district of Haryana. And a few days prior to this yatra (procession), a video was circulated by two pigs of Bajrang Dal and VHP, Monu Manesar and Bittu Bajrangi, challenging the muslims of Nuh and asking them to garland their 'JIJA' (Brother-in-law).

O NASTY DOGS OF BAJRANG DAL!

You killed our Muslim brothers, the Imam (Saad) of a Jame masjid. You violated our sacred masjid with your filthy presence. You bulldozed to ground around 500 houses belonging to our Muslim brothers and sisters. Your loyal dogs in security forces entered the houses of the Muslims and misbehaved with our mothers and sisters and beat them up and threw hundreds of our Muslim brothers behind bars. You vandalise several shops belongings to our Muslims brothers and you left our mothers and sisters homeless. You force them to leave their villages and migrate to other places. You left our children hungry and homeless. For all of this, your security forces and the tyrant Home Minister of Haryana-Anil Vij fully backed you.

O FILTHY BAJRANGEES!

As if this was not enough to please your false deities and the rascals presiding in your so called temple of justice "SUPREME COURT OF INDIA". Skhanna and SVN Bhatti, when asked to stop the march of the precession through 27 muslim majority areas, didn't do anything and rather extend their full support.

O BAJRANGIEES!

O PIGS OF VISWA HINDU PRISHAD AND BAJRANG DAL!

We are the muslim who don't bow their heads before any one except the Lord of the universe, the Creator of the heavens and the earth, the Almighty Allah.

Just turn the pages of History and look at the glorious past if Islamic conquest of India. O Worshippers of 33 crores nude statues! You provoked us, the soldiers of the Khilafah, and we are watching accurately and exactly. We are watching the atrocities that you have perpetrated on our brothers in "Nuh" district (Mewat); Under our watchful eyes are you and your security forces who are using bulldozers. We will avenge In Sha Allah each and every act of your injustice and oppression and very soon we will let you taste your medicine as a lesson for your generations to come. The medicine or treatment.

O YOU FILTHY HOME MINISTER OF HARYANA!

Your filthy tongue has declared bulldozer as a part of 'ilaaj' (treatment) for Muslims and your lord sitting in "SUPREME COURT OF INDIA" by permitting you to commit such despicable acts, and this has let the mask off your ugly faces for all the Muslims to take notice. O you gutless swine of RPF-Chetan

Sing! You killed our three of our people, Hussain Bhanpurwala (48), a resident of Nalasopara in Palghar, Asgar Abbas Sheikh (48), a resident of Madhubani in Bihar, and Sadar Mohammed Hussain in the Jaipur-Mumbai express train after ascertaining their Muslim identities in cold-blood. Your slave media (TIMES OF INDIA SPECIALLY) was very prompt in declaring you insane but you are only product of the factory run by foul creatures of Sangh Parivar(RSS) whose ultimate goal is to annihilate Muslims. The try to protect you by declaring you insane but we have seen standing beside the injured body of our brother and asking people to vote for their two Gay Fathers MODI and YOGI...

Pakistan se operate hue hain, tumbari media, yahi desh ki media ye khabrein dikha rahi hai, pata chal raha hai unko, sab pata chal raha hai, inke aaqa hai wahan. Agar Muslim hain, agar Hindustan me rehna hai, toh mai kehta hun, Modi aur Yogi, yeh do hain, aur aapke Thakrey.

(Translation: They operate from Pakistan, this is the news that your media, this country's media, is showing; they are understand, they understand everything; their leaders are there. If you are Muslim, if you want to live in India, then I'm saying, Modi and Yogi, these are the two, and your Thackeray.)

Wouldn't it disappoint those who trained you if you really were insane. Nonethless we are thirsty for your blood and blood of your wife and children.

{And there is life for you in Qisas, O men of understanding} [Al-Baqarah: 179]

Madrassa students in Hapur, Uttar Pradesh, were beaten by a Hindutva punk who said they were about to throw the fish in the Temple while they were returning home with fish they had purchased from the market. Police have arrested the accused youth, Lalit Kumar.

On July 22, cow vigilantes brutally thrashed a Muslim man in Sesan Nava village, Banaskantha, Gujarat, on suspicion of trading cattle. He was kidnapped, then taken to the forest, where he was beaten with sticks, threatened with a machete, and forced to chant "jai shri ram."

O Muslims of Hind, especially brothers of Nuh and Haryana! This is not the first time you are bearing this but in Gujrath, Muzaffarnager, Delhi, Mumbai, Assam, ad so on, Muslims bore this. Countless muslims lost their lives, either brutally Killed, lynched or burned alive, thousands rendered homeless and their honours violated and lot more were incarcerated. O Muslims!..... wake-up! Look at Nuh, use your intellect and take heed.O Muslims!...there is no one for you except Allah Azzawajjal. Don't fool yourselves, those of you who sit around, eat, drink, and live comfortable life, violating your trust, tomorrow it will be your turn to get stabbed in the back, when they will spill your blood.

{And what is wrong with you that you fight not in cause of Allah and for those weak, ill treated, and oppressed among men, women, and children}

[An-Nisa:75]

O SO CALLED LEADERS OF MUSLIMS IN HIND!

You have been reiterating your faith in secularism and that man-made kufri constitution, as you so often pledge adherence to more than a Muwahhid reiterates his faith in "SHAHADATAIN". You have declared your trust in the Taghuti "SUPREME COURT" of India to deliver justice to the oppressed Muslims in Hind and preserve your Masjids. So where is that justice now? Isn't it high time after you opened your eyes to Tawagheet who have once again let you down by allowing the procession to march through Nuh's Muslim dominated areas.

"How [can there be a treaty] while, if they gain dominance over you, they regard not the ties, either of kinship or of covenant with you? With their mouths they please you, but their hearts are averse to you, and most of them are defiantly disobedient} [At-Taubah: 8]

Would you not accept the realities and declare kufr bit Taghut (Disavowal of Tawagheet) and resort to al-Wala wal-Bara and Millat-e-Ibrahim before it is too late? {Whoever disbelief in Taghut and believes in Allah, then he has grasped the most trustworthy handhold that will never break} [Al-Baqarah: 256]

{Whatever there has been excellent example for you in Ibrahim and those with him, when they said to their people: "Verily, we are free from you and whatever you worship besides Allah, we have rejected you and there has appeared between us and you hostility and hatred forever until you believe in Allah alone} [Al-Mumtahina: 4]

A Muslim was killed while five others survived a mob lynching in Assam on July 25. Even police were attacked for trying to rescue the victims.

O MUSLIMS OF HIND!

There is no one to support and help you not even those you have been putting your trust into like Taghuti courts, politicians, and 'Ulama-e-Khabeesa. They all are allies of each other and they all are part of Hizb as-Shayateen. And if you still don't wake up, then none can save you from the humiliating destruction at your own hands.

SO RISE UP, O MUSLIMS OF HIND!

Take revenge for each and every act of oppression and injustice against your brothers. Burn Hindus alive, burn their homes, markets, and crops of these polytheistic infidels to ashes. Kill them in their street, crush them using vehicles, mix poison in their water tanks and throw snakes in their processions. Make the spacious Earth constricted for these cowardly creatures. Rise up and march forth seeking the pleasure of your Lord. Fight with your wealth and soul to defend your religion, for you have nothing to loose.

O HINDUS!

Pay heed. To render thousands of Muslims homeless you have used bulldozers and declared that a part of "ilaaj" (treatment of Muslims) with your filthy tongues. But be rest assured, we are the soldiers of "Khilafah" and we have millions and billions behind us to whom our voice reaches, and we have only one 'ilaaj' (treatment) for you: Sword and Explosions (the 'Ibadaah of Bloodshed)... bi'idh-nillah.

No one will be able to save you, neither your two homosexual fathers: Modi and Yogi nor your 33 crores deaf dumb idols. So take glad tidings of the upcoming massacres when even your own shadow will intimidate you.

{Their multitude will be defeated, and they will show their back}

جَافَرُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ

LIFE OF THE COMPANIONS:

JAFAR BIN ABU TALIB

- RADIALLAHU ANHU -

Back In spite of his noble standing among the Quraysh, Abu Talib, an uncle of the Prophet ﷺ, was quite poor. He had a large family and did not have enough means to support them adequately. His poverty-stricken situation became much worse when a severe drought hit the Arabian peninsula. The drought destroyed vegetation and livestock, and it is said, people were driven to eat bones in the struggle for survival. It was during this time of drought before Prophet Muhammad's ﷺ call to prophethood that he ﷺ said to his uncle, al Abbas: "Your brother, Abu Talib, has a large family. People, as you see, have been afflicted by this severe drought and are facing starvation. Let us go to Abu Talib and take over responsibility for some of his family. I will take one of his sons and you can take another, and we will look after them." "What you suggest is certainly righteous and commendable," replied al-Abbas, and together they went to Abu Talib and said to him: "We want to ease some of the burden of your family until such time as this distressing period has gone." Abu Talib agreed. "If you allow me to keep Aqeel (one of his sons older than Ali), then you may do whatever you like," he said. It was in this way that Muhammad ﷺ took Ali into his household and al-Abbas took Jafar into his. Jafar had a very close resemblance to the Prophet ﷺ. It is said there were five men from Banu Hashim who resembled the Prophet ﷺ so much, they were often mistaken for him. They were: Abu Sufyan ibn al-Harith, Qutham ibn al-Abbas, both of whom were cousins of his, as-Saib ibn Ubayd, the grandfather of Imam ash Shafi'i, al-Hasan ibn Ali, the grandson of the Prophet ﷺ, who resembled him most of all, and Jafar ibn Abi Talib. Jafar stayed with his uncle, al-Abbas, until he was a young man. Then he married Asma bint Umays, a sister of Maymunah who would later become a wife of the Prophet ﷺ. After his marriage, Jafar went to live on his own. He and his wife were among the first persons to accept Islam. He became a Muslim at the hands of Abu Bakr as-Siddiq, may Allah be pleased with him. The young Jafar and his wife were devoted followers of Islam. They bore harsh treatment and persecution of the Quraysh with patience and steadfastness because they both realized that the road to Paradise was strewn with thorns and paved with pain and hardship. The Quraysh made life intolerable for them both and for their brethren in faith. They tried to obstruct them from observing or performing the duties and rites of Islam. They prevented them from tasting the full sweetness of worship undisturbed. The Quraysh put obstacles for them at every turn and severely restricted their freedom of movement. Jafar eventually went to the Prophet ﷺ and sought permission for himself and a small group of the Sahabah, including his wife, to make hijrah to the land of Abyssinia. With great sadness, the Prophet ﷺ gave his permission. It pained him that these pure and righteous souls were forced to leave their homes and the familiar and cherished scenes and memories of their childhood and youth, not for any crime but only because they said, "Our Lord is One. Allah is our Lord." The group of muhajirin left Makkah bound for the land of Abyssinia. Leading them was Jafar ibn Abi Talib. Soon they settled down in this new land under the care and protection of the Negus, the just and righteous ruler of Abyssinia. For the first time since they became Muslims, they savoured the taste of freedom and security and enjoyed the sweetness of worship undisturbed. When the Quraysh learnt of the departure of the small group of Muslims and the peaceful life they enjoyed under the protection of the Negus, they made plans to secure their extradition and their return to the great prison that was Makkah. They sent two of their most formidable men, Amr ibn al-Aas and Abdullah ibn Abi Rabiah, to accomplish this task and loaded them with valuable and much sought after presents for the Negus and his bishops. In Abyssinia, the two Quraysh emissaries first presented their girls to the bishops and to each of them they said: "There are some wicked young people moving about freely in the King's land. They have attacked the religion of their forefathers and caused disunity among their people. When we speak to the King about them, advise him to surrender them to us without his asking them about their religion. The respected leaders of their own people are more aware of them and know better what they believe." The bishops agreed. Amr and

Abdullah then went to the Negus himself and presented him with gifts which he greatly admired. They said to him: "O King, there is a group of evil persons from among our youth who have escaped to your kingdom. They practice a religion which neither we nor you know. They have forsaken our religion and have not entered into your religion. The respected leaders of their people - from among their own parents and uncles and from their own clans - have sent us to you to request you to return them. They know best what trouble they have caused." The Negus looked towards his bishops who said: "They speak the truth, O King. Their own people know them better and are better acquainted with what they have done. Send them back so that they themselves might judge them." The Negus was quite angry with this suggestion and said: "No. By Allah, I won't surrender them to anyone until I myself call them and question them about what they have been accused. If what these two men have said is true, then I will hand them over to you. If however it is not so, then I shall protect them so long as they desire to remain under my protection." The Negus then summoned the Muslims to meet him. Before going, they consulted with one another as a group and agreed that Jafar ibn Abi Talib and no one else should speak on their behalf. In the court of the Negus, the bishops, dressed in green garments and impressive headgear, were seated on his right and on his left. The Qurayshite emissaries also seated when the Muslims entered and took their seats. The Negus turned to them and asked: "What is this religion which you have introduced for yourself and which has served to cut you off from the religion of your people? You also did not enter my religion nor the religion of any other community." Jafar ibn Abi Talib then advanced and made a speech that was moving and eloquent and which is still one of the most compelling descriptions of Islam: The appeal of the noble Prophet ﷺ and the condition of Makkan society at the time. He said: "O King, we were a people in a state of ignorance and immorality, worshipping idols and eating the flesh of dead animals, committing all sorts of abomination and shameful deeds. breaking the ties of kinship, treating guests badly and the strong among us exploited the weak. We remained in this state until Allah sent us a Prophet ﷺ, one of our own people whose lineage, truthfulness, trustworthiness and integrity were well-known to us. He called us to worship Allah alone and to renounce the stones and the idols which we and our ancestors used to worship besides Allah. He ﷺ commanded us to speak the truth, to honor our promises, to be kind to our relations, to be helpful to our neighbors, to cease all forbidden acts, to abstain from bloodshed, to avoid obscenities and false witness, not to appropriate an orphan's property nor slander chaste women. He ﷺ ordered us to worship Allah alone and not to associate anything with him, to uphold Salat, to give Zakat and fast in the month of Ramadan. We believed in him and what he ﷺ brought to us from Allah and we follow him in what he ﷺ has asked us to do and we keep away from what he ﷺ forbade us from doing. Thereupon, O King, our people attacked us, inflicted the severest punishment on us to make us renounce our religion and take us back to the old immorality and the worship of idols. They oppressed us, made life intolerable for us and obstructed us from observing our religion. So we left for your country, choosing you before anyone else, desiring your protection and hoping to live in justice and peace among your midst." The Negus was impressed and was eager to hear more. He asked Jafar: "Do you have with you something of what your Prophet ﷺ brought concerning God?" "Yes," replied Jafar. "Then read it to me," requested the Negus. Jafar, in his rich, melodious voice recited for him the first portion of Surah Maryam which deals with the story of Isa and his mother Maryam, peace be upon them. On hearing the words of the Quran, the Negus was moved to tears. To the Muslims, he said: "The message of your Prophet ﷺ and that of Isa came from the same source..." To Amr and his companion, he said: "Go. For, by God, I will never surrender them to you." That, however, was not the end of the matter. The wily Amr made up his mind to go to the King the following day to mention something about the Muslims belief which will certainly fill his heart with anger and make him detest them. The next day, Amr went to the Negus and said: "O King, these people to whom you have given refuge and whom you protect say something terrible about Isa the son of Maryam (that he is a slave). Send (men) for them and ask them what they say about him." The Negus summoned the Muslims once more and Jafar acted as their spokesman. The Negus put the question: "What do you say about Jesus, the son of Mary?" "Regarding him, we only say what has been revealed to our Prophet ﷺ," replied Jaffar. "And what is that?," enquired the Negus. "Our Prophet says that Isa is the servant of Allah and His Prophet (The Muslims stayed on in the land of the Negus who proved to be most generous and kind to his guests. Jafar and his wife Asma spent about ten years in Abyssinia which became a second home for them. There, Asma gave birth to three children whom they named Abdullah, Muhammad and Awn.). His spirit and His word which He cast into Maryam the Virgin." The Negus was obviously excited by this reply and exclaimed: "By God, Isa the son of Maryam was exactly as your Prophet has described him." The bishops around the Negus grunted in disgust at what they had heard and were reprimanded by the Negus. He turned to the Muslims and said: "Go, for you are safe and secure. Whoever obstructs you will pay for it and whoever opposes you will be punished. For, by God, I would rather not have a mountain of gold than that anyone of you should come to any harm." Turning to Amr and his companion, he instructed his attendants: "Return their gifts to these two men. I have no need of them." Amr and his companion left broken and frustrated.

Their second child was possibly the first child in the history of the Muslim Ummah to be given the name Muhammad after the noble Prophet, mayAllah bless him and grant him peace. In the seventh year of the hijrah, Jafar and his family left Abyssinia with a group of Muslims and headed for Madinah. When they arrived the Prophet ﷺ was just returning from the successful conquest of Khaybar. He ﷺ was so overjoyed at meeting Jafar that he ﷺ said: "I do not know what fills me with more happiness, the conquest of Khaybar or the coming of Jafar." Muslims in general and the poor among them especially were just as happy with the return of Jafar as the Prophet ﷺ was. Jafar quickly became known as a person who was much concerned for the welfare of the poor and indigent. For this he was nicknamed, the "Father of the Poor". Abu Hurayrah said of him: "The best of men towards us indigent folk was Jafar ibn Abi Talib. He would pass by us on his way home and give us whatever food he had. Even if his own food had run out, he would send us a pot in which he had placed some butterfat and nothing more. We would open it and lick it clean..." Jafar's stay in Madinah was not long. At the beginning of the eighth year of the hijrah, the Prophet ﷺ mobilized an army to confront Byzantine governor. He ﷺ appointed Zayd ibn Harithah as commander of the army and gave the following instructions: "If Zayd is wounded or killed, Jafar ibn Abi Talib would take over the command. If Jafar is killed or wounded, then your commander would be Abdullah ibn Rawahah. If Abdullah ibn Rawahah is killed, then let the Muslims choose for themselves a commander." The Prophet ﷺ had never given such instructions to an army before and the Muslims took this as an indication that he expected the battle to be tough and that they would even suffer major losses. When the Muslim army reached Mutah, a small village situated among hills in Jordan, they discovered that the Byzantines had amassed a hundred thousand men backed up by a massive number of Christian Arabs from the tribes of Lakhm, Judham, Qudaah, and others. The Muslim army only numbered three thousand. Despite the great odds against them, the Muslim forces engaged the Byzantines in battle. Zayd ibn al-Harithah, the beloved companion of the Prophet ﷺ, was among the first to drink from the well of shahadah. Jafar ibn Abi Talib then assumed command. Mounted on his ruddy-complexioned horse, he penetrated deep into the Byzantine ranks.

As he spurred his horse on, he called out: "How wonderful is Paradise as it draws near! How pleasant and cool is its drink! Punishment for the Byzantines is not far away!" Jafar continued to fight vigorously but was eventually slain. The third in command, Abdullah ibn Rawahah, also followed in the same path of the shuhada. Khalid ibn al-Walid, the inveterate fighter who had recently accepted Islam, was then chosen as the commander. He made a tactical withdrawal, redeployed the Muslims and renewed the attack from several directions. Eventually, the bulk of the Byzantine forces fled in disarray. The news of the death of his three commanders reached the Prophet ﷺ in Madinah. The pain and grief he ﷺ felt was intense. He ﷺ went to Jafar's house and met his wife Asma. She was getting ready to receive her absent husband. She had prepared dough and bathed and clothed the children. Asma said: "When the Messenger of Allah ﷺ approached us, I saw a veil of sadness shrouding his noble face and I became very apprehensive. But I did not dare ask him about Jafar for fear that I would hear some unpleasant news. He greeted and asked, 'Where are Jaffar's children?' I called them for him and they came and crowded around him happily, each one wanting to claim him for himself. He ﷺ leaned over and hugged them while tears flowed from his eyes. "O Messenger of Allah," I asked, "why do you cry? Have you heard anything about Jafar and his two companions?" "Yes," he replied. "They have attained martyrdom." The smiles and the laughter vanished from the faces of the little children when they heard their mother crying and wailing. Women came and gathered around Asma. "O Asma," said the Prophet ﷺ, "don't say anything objectionable and don't beat your chest." He ﷺ

then prayed to Allah to protect and sustain the family of Jafar and assured them that he had attained Paradise. The Prophet ﷺ left Asthma's house and went to his daughter Fatimah who was also weeping. To her, he said: "For such as Jafar, you can (easily) cry yourself to death. Prepare food for Jafar's family for today they are beside themselves with grief."

Jafar bin Abu Talib ﷺ was a noble Companion. During the early days of Islam, he set the example of what it means to leave home and belongings, and relatives behind for the sake of Islam and to move towards uncertainty, being certain about the immense nusrat of Allah the Exalted. And with the change of wind, when Islam was granted honor through the establishment of the first Islamic State, he also set out the example of running towards hasanah of getting slain for the sake of Allah. {Among the believers are men who have proven true to what they pledged to Allah} [33:23]

THE REAL DEFENDERS

O F T H E U M M A H

ARAB LEAGUE

Since the establishment of the Khilafah in 2014, it was by no surprise that the Arab League nations have done what they could to delegitimize it by having their sold-out scholars, from as far as Al Azhar to Medina, to issue fatawas to try to dethrone this most necessary leadership for the Islamic Ummah. And this development came at a time when most of the leaders of the countries of the Muslims used to intimidate their citizens that the utterance of a single word of opposition would land one in prison for being tortured, so the Islamic Ummah was left with no choice other than being ruled by the worst of the people. And this is how the Khilafah appeared as a threat to the Tawagheet of Arab League, while these Tawagheet used to sit back and enjoy the crack-down on the Muslims by the infidels, so the surprise announcement of Khilafah put an end to their comfortable sitting and enjoying!!!

No matter where one goes today, he attempts to explore honor by being subjugated by a manager, supervisor, CEO, and any other pursuer of this temporary world, and people are accustomed to be controlled by someone other than themselves (according to the Shari'ah of Allah) looking after their best interests, and making sure things generally go smoothly, and when they don't, they are there to make a change, or essentially do what is good for them for the most part. So generally speaking this is not a new concept, and also what is not a new concept is the change. So when a leader is no longer serving the interests of those he is serving, normally its time for change, and in past when a leader failed to step down or leave, the people in turn would revolt or find different means to replace him, as we see in today's world that there seems to be a coup every week.

But unfortunately in the Muslim world, we have so-called leaders who have secured their foothold leading a country by lineage and established themselves as kings, or have had another superpower put them in power, and now the Muslims have to deal with each generation of these kings' family garbage, generation after generation, as we see in Morocco and Lebanon, these are just 2 examples of useless people whose families don't deserve authority, not even for an hour. Lineage should not be a means solely to take control unless someone is capable of serving the people justly and ruling by Shari'ah completely. In some way or another, these comical slaves of the infidels or their own whim announced themselves as Khulafa or religiously legitimate leaders, generally with the support of kuffar to sweeten the deal, as we have already seen Britain and France being very much involved in helping and establishing leaders in these Arab nations, and even in today's landscape, the US is putting the losers into power to run Iraq after it had left Iraq.

So what is the solution?

To put things in complete simple perspective, Khalifah is the leader of the Islamic State, and regardless of the definition you choose, he is necessary for the Islamic world and has been put there for that reason, to dictate the affairs of the Ummah, to protect the Muslims under his rule and abroad, and dispatch army if required for the oppressed Muslims eve in the land of the disbelievers, and he rules by the Book of Allah the Exalted in all cases, not half democracy half Shari'ah, its all or none. So the establishment of Khilafah does not need to be validated by other neighbouring countries nor there is any necessity of their approval. And Khalifah dumps already signed foreign policy that was completely against Muslims in the trash bin.

KING MOHAMMED VI

However, it works in another way that if there is no Khalifah for the Muslims, then it is necessary that a righteous leader (Qurayshi and having other Shari' qualities) stands up and says that's enough, and he takes control of the affairs of the Muslims, like we have seen in Sham in 2014, despite the fact that the common Muslims, living in the lands ruled by Tawagheet, were not allowed to choose their own leader who would manage their affairs with the Book of Allah, so it was by pure necessity that this Khilafah needed to be announced, but not a single Arab country sent its paramilitaries to support Khilafah. They never lifted a finger to help the oppressed Muslims, rather they got off the hook by writing meaningless letters of condemning the actions of the tyrants like Bashar al-Assad, and this exposes what pathetic worms they are.

Now this sounds like a perfect plan of course, as we have read many times in our Islamic history how the perfect system was implemented, and how the honor of the Ummah was protected by righteous Khulafa, but unfortunately these self-soothing cowardly leaders, whom we have in power today running the so-called Muslim countries, would hate this idea, it would make them accountable, challenge their power, and they might go back to being average citizens once removed from power!!! So let's look at what the so-called Arab League is doing for the Muslims of the world, and how the established (not self-proclaimed) Khilafah, which still goes on today, threatens that power-base, let's see how far we have come since the complete demise of the Ottoman Empire, let's see how much dignity this Ummah has lost prior to the establishment of this Khilafah upon prophetic method, and to the extent the fear of the Muslims left the heart of our enemies, and what the Arab League was doing, so let's have a look at them.

ARAB LEAGUE'S LIST OF COMPLACENCY

Literally watched Zionists taking over Palestine and attacking worshippers in Al Aqsa, plus many other atrocities in the West Bank.

No practical role played in the war of 1967 in Palestine.

Allowed US and its allies to use Muslim lands to attack Muslims.

Adopted kufri laws.

Attacked, Killed, and imprisoned righteous scholars or anyone who spoke against them, instilling fear into the hearts of the Muslims, rather than earning their respect and love.

Did nothing
against Syrian Taghut.

Did nothing
against communist China.

Did nothing to serve or protect the Muslims in any way other than filling their bellies with greed and selling the religion of Islam for mere pennies.

So we can see from just a few of the hundreds of examples that the Arab League has done nothing for the Muslims in a positive way, other than introducing a modernized heretical version of Islam which was not a success, rather it was the pure destruction; they punished those who cry out to them to do something for them when they were being bombed by Taghut Assad, although the military might of Arab League was enough to bomb Assad's house to dust in response, rather they simply kicked him out of the Arab League, but then Assad kept on killing Muslims, and now shamelessly, the Arab League has welcomed him back.

This Arab League had sat back and done absolutely nothing, until a day when a righteous man did what needed to be done, since he was like so many of this Ummah who had enough of watching brothers and sisters getting killed, while the Taghuti Arab League stood back as coward. So, this righteous man (Shaykh Abu Bakr al-Baghdadi, may Allah accept him) stood up and vowed to kill the wrongdoers; he was actually in the process of doing it. Iraq was the part of the world which marked unprecedented oppression of Ahlus Sunnah at the hands of Rafidah murtaddin, when there was no response from the Arab world, so he stood up on the Mimbar in Mosul and did what needed to be done, and announced the Khilafah which had been long overdue upon the Islamic Ummah.

Uniting under one flag, fighting for the sake of Allah, not just putting words on paper, but fighting against murtadd Nusayri army, and others that got in their way, the Khalifah soldiers had captured so much ground in a very short time which even astonished the US that how swift the Khilafah army was, and still today, the infidels of the world can't really explain how it was possible by an unknown army to accomplish such huge advancement in such a short period of time, while eve an established army, led by Taghut Vladimir Putin, is at it's wits' end to capture every single inch square space in Ukraine, but for us, the Muslims, this is not a new story, as throughout Islamic history, it is evident that, with the help of Allah, to our righteous predecessors, their and Allah's enemies were nothing but small bugs to be squashed. So this swift response, shown by the soldiers of the Islamic State sparing nothing in their way of establishing justice upon the earth, terrified the 22 Arab League member nations, as they had witnessed a response from the Islamic State that they should have taken care of long before; surely every time Muslims were oppressed or killed, those 22 puppet countries should have responded swiftly, not with mere letters of condemnation, but with real action.

This growing support eventually made the 22 nations paranoid, especially those bordering Syria and Iraq, they had to quickly put into motion propaganda campaigns to make people go against the Khilafah. The Khilafah has been winning the hearts of the oppressed ones, the 22 nations should have been pleased that the Khilafah army was destroying the Nusayri army, along with other murtadd armies, and the Arab countries should have supported it with weapons and more, but much like the spineless cowards they are, scared and nervous and jealous because the people were supporting the Islamic State more, and since they have no courage to fight kuffar, it was no surprise that they went on a smearing campaign against the Khilafah.

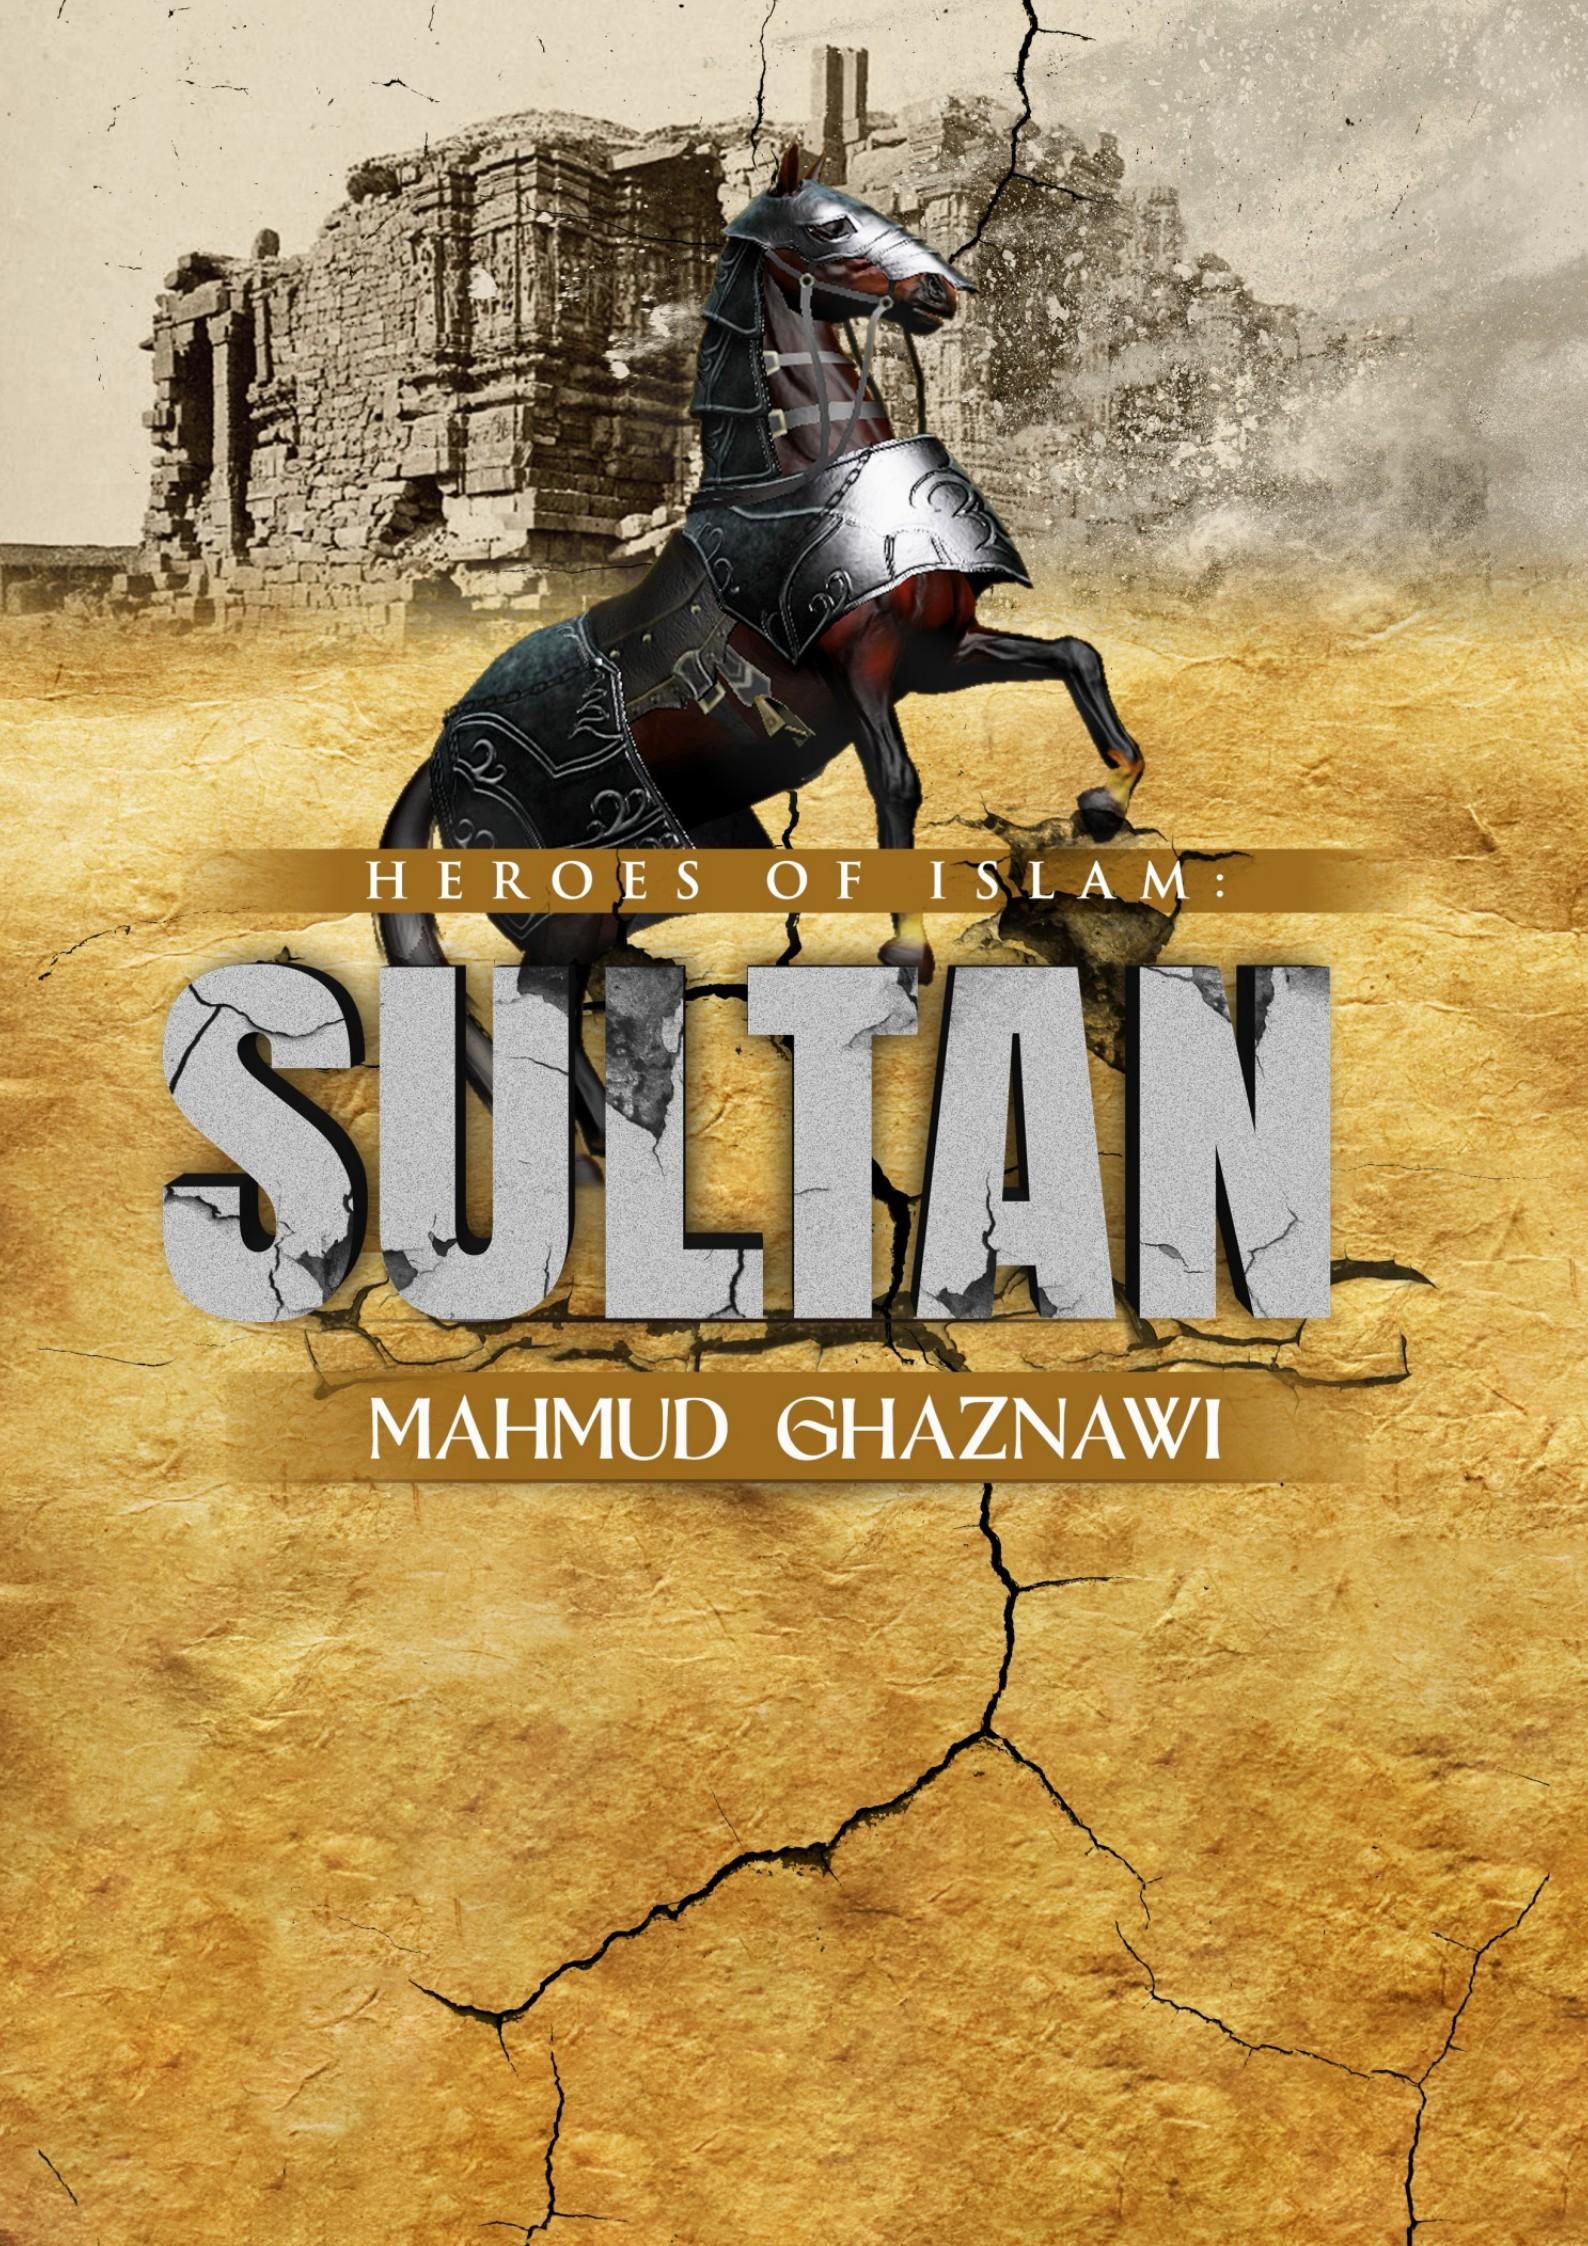

The establishment of Khilafah was necessary for this Ummah, and it is what the Ummah needed; we don't need more blood sucking lying politicians, we need Allah fearing leaders willing to stand up against the kuffar and say, "we are not going to tolerate your oppression anymore, and we are going to make you feel 9/11 was nothing more than a detonation prior to the actual explosion which is to come." Unfortunately, the entire Ummah did not choose to stand with the Khilafah, eventually so-called Muslims turned their guns on them, along with the kufri armies in a combined effort of eliminating the Khilafah. So such a naked display of betrayal by the so called Muslims has made the infidels in the West more courageous as they are now back to oppressing and killing Muslims, burning Quran, and occupying Muslims' settlements in Palestine, while the 22 Arab nations just sit back, its back to business as usual.

The Khilafah is required, still is, and a lot of benefits lie in its establishment for the Ummah, so do not listen to the imposters of the 22 nations of Arab League, as you have already learnt about what contribution they have made in defending the Ummah. So, you can understand whom you should stand with.

The soldiers of the Islamic State are innocent from the blames of the blamers, and they are the real of defenders of the honor of the Ummah !!!

HEROES OF ISLAM:

SULTAN

MAHMUD GHAZNAWI

Abul-Qāsim Mahmūd ibn Sebüktегīn that is Sultan Mahmud Ghaznawi (2 November 971 - 30 April 1030) was the first Muslim ruler to take the title of "Sultan" and to expand his empire beyond the borders of Iran and Afghanistan. He was the son of Sabuktigin, who was a Turkic slave commander. Later on, he laid foundations to the Ghaznawi dynasty in Ghazni in 977. Father Sabuktigin has ruled as a subordinate of the Samanids, who ruled Khurasan and Transoxiana. Sultan Mahmud's mother was from Tajikistan. She has born in a wealthy and aristocrat family in the region of Zabulistan.

Sultan Mahmud Ghaznawi is known for his numerous invasions of India. He was brave and ambitious ruler to lead many military campaigns against the enemies of Allah the Almighty. He is also known for his courage, skill, and determination in battle in Islamic history, especially in Khurasan. He was a pious and brave warrior. He was the remarkable ruler who left a lasting legacy in the history of Islam.

Sultan Mahmud supported the Sunni branch of Islam and opposed the polytheistic Rafidah sect, which he considered heretical. He fought against Rafidah's the Fatimid Dynasty in Egypt, which claimed to be the rightful successors of our Prophet Muhammad ﷺ. He also fought against Rafidah's 6th Imam of Ismaili sect in Multan.

Soon after Sultan Mahmud Ghaznawi's accession to the throne, his military campaign began by suppressing internal rebellions. After achieving temporary success, he decided to attack Hind, putting his reliance on Allah. Sultan Mahmud Ghaznawi invaded Hind numerous times and captured their wealth and plundered the arrogance of the idol worshiping Hindus, as he made them subjugated to the Shari'ah of Allah, after destroying many Hindu and Buddhist temples and idols.

In 1001, he faced Jaipal, the haughty ruler of the Punjab. Jaipal owned a larger army consisting of many elephants, and this was to no avail for him against the soldiers of Allah. Sultan Mahmud bravely defeated him. After 7 years, in 1008 again he fought Jaipal's son Anandpal. He was the leader of coalition of Hindu kings. He routed them at the Battle of Waihind and pursued them to Kashmir. Sultan also conquered Multan and Lahore in the same year.

In 1014, Sultan conquered Thanesar, a holy city of the Hindus. He has destroyed the idols and shrines from the city temples. In 1025, he undertook his most famous expedition to Somnath, a coastal city in Gujarat that housed a famous temple of Shiva. He marched with 20,000 cavalry across the barren and deadly desert of Sindh and reached Somnath after a month. Only an army having trust in Allah can take the heavy burden supporting Allah's Deen through travelling under such harsh condition. And this is why Allah's nusrat is with those who are steadfast. Sultan Mahmud encountered a strong army of 50,000 defenders and a large crowd of pilgrims. He fought a bloody battle and stormed the temple. He broke the idol of Shiva and captured its treasures. Sultan has built many mosques, madrasas in the lands he conquered, such as in Lahore, Multan, Peshawar, and Ghazni. He also appointed Muslim governors and officials to administer the territories according to the Shari'ah of Allah. He encouraged the conversion of Hindus and Buddhists to Islam. He also imposed the jizyah on the unbelievers.

Sultan Mahmud Ghaznavi is recognized as a multi-dimensional genius in Islamic history. He was a pious man, a brave warrior, an efficient administrator, a patron of literature, a just judge and a conqueror of states. Many legends have been written about Sultan Mahmud's piety. He regularly offered five daily prayers with the congregation and performed many supererogatory prayers also. Moreover, he regularly recited the Quran and performed other religious activities properly. Despite having great military might, he always put trust in Allah solely. Despite these qualities, the quality that has brought Sultan the most recognition is his military powers granted by Allah Azzawajjal to him due to his piety. He spent his entire life in wars. Because after ascending the throne, he first had to fight internal rebellions and then he had to deal with other external enemies. Among these, he had to fight against trained soldiers like Samanids and Hindus to achieve success. He had rarely tasted defeat in battle in life. Because until the moment of his death, with success from Allah, he conducted the most war against Hindus where he hardly suffered any defeat.

From the life of Sultan Mahmud Ghaznawi, there are a lot of things to learn for the Muslims particularly the young Muslims. His piousness and bravery might be a source of the inspiration for those who are striving for the support of Islam. The way Sultan conquered and expanded the Islamic territory, in the same way, In Shaa Allah a brighter future is waiting for the oppressed Muslims in Hind when a detachment of Ar-Rahman will march towards Hind for crashing the ugly heads of hting until there is no more fitnah.

Hindu snakes, and the flag of Hindu nationalism will be replaced by the black banner of Tawheed, bi'idhnillah. But the window to such a glorious chapter will only open through immense sacrifice in the way of Allah. So, whenever this Ummah becomes ready for such sacrifice, victory will be just a matter of time, bi'idhnillah. Therefore, it is time to get inspired by the idol-crasher Mahmud Ghaznawi's story and embark upon this great journey of fighting until there is no more fitnah.

BETWEEN

THE HAMMER AND THE ANVIL

The Goliath of the time seems to be under severe pressure due to the emergence of stubborn wolves in the jungle. These wolves have greatly challenged the hegemony of America, the Goliath of the day, although this neo-Goliath has entertained mankind with a century of their hegemony in socio-economic and military arena. Unfortunately, now they have to go through an unprecedented predicament as their hegemony has been greatly challenged by other infidels of their like, let alone the rise of their ultimate nightmare, the soldiers of the Islamic State. The US has nowhere to go. Regarding the Ukraine issue, they have been left with no other option than pouring billions of dollars into the black hole named Ukraine so that the Ukrainians may erect a defensive wall against Russia and its allies. Nothing is free in the capitalist West. In this materialistic world, everyone pursues his own interest. So, the US and NATO have been also seeking to defend their own interests and maintain their hegemony in the world, by making Ukraine a scapegoat.

On the other hand, Ukrainians have been playing the role of scapegoat of the NATO alliance with full sincerity. It has been begging for NATO membership for a long time, yet it is being denied, despite being subjected to the burning of flame Russian onslaught. At the beginning of this war, weapons were being flooded into their country, but with the passage of time, the hypocritical West has been showing a substantial decrease in their willingness to further weaponize Ukraine. So, there is a major concern whether Ukraine will keep on receiving similar weapon packages in the future or not. Getting back to NATO membership issue, the West is not even ready to promise Ukraine this membership even in the near future. For hiding such hypocrisy, it says that NATO constitution doesn't allow membership to a country which is already in a war with another country. But such law has been made by human and can be changed also. Actually, the reality is if NATO grants Ukraine membership, it will become obligatory upon them to defend it physically by sending their troops to its hot battlefield. However, despite bragging about military might, US led NATO countries are not in a position to defend Ukraine with their body and soul. So, they want to stay away from this trouble by using Ukrainians as mere proxies. This is the hypocrisy that they can't express outwardly to the world. And this hypocrisy is the same ugly reality with those deprived of faith in Allah Azzawajjal. Nevertheless, the US and the infidel West are only good at showing vulgar display of power against literally unarmed innocent masses, especially the Muslims. So, when it comes to the confrontation of equals, you will see them settling scores using proxies and terming such indirect confrontation as "cold war" and other similar terms. But yet, you can't say that they are in a position to settle the issues permanently on the table. This is because: {Their violence among themselves is severe. You think they are together, but their hearts are diverse. That is because they are people who do not reason} [Al-Hashr: 14] Undoubtedly, Allah Azzawajjal has punished such disbelieving nations with severe enmity among each other, which is never meant to be settled, since they have disbelieved in Allah and His Messenger ﷺ, and whatever he ﷺ has brought. And it is a punishment from Allah that they will keep shedding blood of each other for ephemeral worldly resources and power. This is because they are devoid of sound reasoning due to their disbelief.

Turning to the tendency of the neo-Goliath (the US) in maintaining its supremacy over the world, it is getting difficult day by day for the US to come up with a practical solution to maintain it. Literally, they are left with no other option to thwart the polarization of the world, apart from the threat of the mujahidin. The formula of running proxy wars for securing national interests doesn't seem to be effective anymore for them. And due to the recession in the global and the national level, which the US is trying to hide- for the time being- by increasing interest rates, it doesn't have the capacity to bear the consequences of any direct confrontation with the Communist led block (Russia, China, and their allies), since the recent celebration of 70th anniversary of North and South Korea also reminds the neo-Goliath of the heavy toll of its soldiers whose lives were expandable in the Korean peninsula 70 years ago for the sake of maintaining their meager position of global super power. During this war that started in 1950, the US had to physically involve for defending their proxies in the Korean peninsula, but they ended up losing some 30000 US and 1000 British soldiers in this war that lasted for 3 years. And similarly, the outcome of Vietnam war is known to all that how this dumheaded superpower ended up achieving nothing in their years of war in Vietnam.

Besides, the Goliath has had enough with fostering their pet dogs (murratad governments) in the Muslim countries against the mujahidin. So, the US is simply focusing on the new boots on the ground, like Taliban militia, by spending millions of dollars on this new US mercenaries, although the US doesn't even know how long it will be able to keep the impotent Taliban regime alive with emergency life support in terms of multi-million-dollar-weakly packages. Just like a mad dog, the US kept frequently changing their boots on the ground in the Muslim countries, but in the end, all their expenditure is to no avail, for the it is practically left with no game changing policy for preventing the establishment of true Islam in the world, especially in the Muslim countries, because despite numerous trial and error from their part, the Islamic State is still remaining and expanding both in operational and battle ground.

{Surely those who disbelieve spend their wealth to hinder (people) from the way of Allah; so they shall spend it, then it shall be to them an intense regret, then they shall be overcome; and those who disbelieve shall be driven together to hell} [Al-Anfal: 36]

So the Goliath seems to be in between the hammer and the anvil for coping with the wave of wild infidel wolves, who are striving to transform the world into a multi-polar one, and the mujahidin fi sabilillah, who are striving for establishing the religion of Allah all over the world which has been promised by the Lord of worlds to them. And most interestingly, while other factions, who have been fighting for worldly gains, are even skeptical regarding their possibility to meet the very objective of their fighting, the soldiers of Islamic State are firm upon their conviction that they will definitely meet their objective of establishing Islam upon the whole earth, just as they firmly believe that the sun rises in the east and sets in the west. Then it is better for the infidels to weigh their determination with that of the soldiers of Allah, and calculate the feasibility of this unequal war.

Let us remind the infidels of the world, especially the so called Goliath US, turn the pages of history. See the outcomes of the then superpowers of the world at the hand of the army who loved death more than your disbelieving predecessors loved their life. And we find you being more inclined to this temporary world as you are more accustomed to the worldly facilities due to the courtesy of technology. Let us remind you of a few incidents from the history of Islamic conquest of Sham and Iraq. Ponder over how less numbered and far less equipped Islamic forces defeated the then outnumbered and well equipped military forces (Roman Empire and Persian Empire). Every age marks its own reality of war. So, no one can bring the technological advancement of the disbelieving military forces of today as an excuse for staying away from jihad in the way of Allah. Prior to the battle of Yarmouq, Roman General Haman meet Muslim General Khalid bin Waleed, and said, "I have heard that you people have come out of your area (for war against us) due to poverty. Let me give you 10 dinar for each of your soldiers. So, go back to your territory. Don't fight against us. Next year I shall give you the same amount again." Sayyidina Khalid bin Waleed replied, "No, its not poverty that has brought us from our land to fight against you. Rather, we have come to drink your blood, since we have heard that your blood is very tasty." ontemporary time of Islamic conquest. Prior to uprooting the Persian Empire, Sayyidina Khalid ﷺ sent a message to the Persian ruler Harmuz, saying: "From Khalid bin Waleed to Harmuz. Peace be upon those who submit to the Guidance. Bring Islam and stay well. Otherwise, give Jizyah, we shall give you protection. But if you deny, I warn you of an army to whom death is as dear as life is dear to your army." Harmuz denied and had to embrace the fate of getting killed at the hands of the Muslims in this battle, and this marked the beginning of the elimination of another superpower of that time.

Later on, in the battle of Illys, mujahidin led by Sayyidina Khalid bin Waleed, chopped some 70,000 infidels of the Persian Empire, and this conquest kept going on. Such brilliant examples, reminds us of the promise of tremendous nusrah of Allah for His believing slaves who fear none but Him and bow down their heads to none but Him, and the same is the status of each and every mujahid of the Islamic State today.

Yet, at this age, the horror, which was faced by the US soldiers in the soil of Iraq, Sham, and Khurasan, is a common nightmare shared by every US soldier till today. So, they don't bear the capacity of another face to face to confrontation with the mujahidin, so they try their best to settle scores with the help of technology, which is not also free of cost at a time when their economy is bleeding silently- a fact that the US tries to hide. Therefore, seeing the US and its allies right in between the hammer and the anvil, it is a sincere advise for the US president and his fellows whose days and nights are occupied in devising fruitless plans against Islam, learn lesson from the history as it never lies. It is good for you to give up this fruitless war and consider bringing Islam or giving Jizyah to us before its too late, for tomorrow, regretting will be of no avail for you.

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said,

"By Him in Whose Hands my soul is, surely the son of Mary will soon descend amongst you and will judge mankind justly (as a Just Ruler); he will break the Cross and kill the pigs and there will be no Jizya. Money will be in abundance so that nobody will accept it, and a single prostration to Allah will be better than the whole world and whatever is in it."
